No worries at all. Technology never seems to work the first try, how we want it to 😊. Unfortunately, I didn't get a zoom link if it was sent to this email (em6023@live.missouriatate.edu). If you still have any troubles, just let me know and I can try scheduling one and sending you a link to see if that works!

Thanks,

Let me know if you got that invite. I accidentally scheduled it for noon, then fixed it but it seemed to duplicate the event, so at this point, I don't know what's happening! 😊

Either of those works for me! Should we plan for Wednesday at 4 PM? Also, do you prefer in-person or zoom again?

Best,

Hi Maureen,

Thank you for checking in! My first couple of weeks of classes have gone well, and I hope things are starting to settle in a bit on your side too.

For the project, progress is steady. I have about 10 hours already logged, and I estimate around 10 hours left to finish the remaining fixes and updates. That keeps us right on track with our 20-hour goal and budget. The main pieces of the site are working in the preview, and my focus now is on tightening up current build issues and bugs, adding the announcements and events section, and polishing design and accessibility so everything is ready for production. Once I get the homepage finalized, I will add it to the Wix site and connect it to the main exchange platform.

I will send you an updated preview of the site by the end of this week (weekend at the latest) so you can see the latest changes. I would also love to set up a time to meet and review priorities together. We can meet during office hours, set up a Zoom call, or use whatever option is easiest for you.

I did get paid on time for the last pay period, and I will submit my timesheet for 8/16–8/31 by tonight. I appreciate the reminder.

Thanks again for your flexibility and support. I am looking forward to moving this forward with you!

Best,

Evan Musick

Hi, Evan.

How are you doing? How have your first couple of weeks of classes been?

I am writing to remind you that your timesheet for 8/16-8/31 is due tonight at 11:59 PM. I am also wondering if you got paid on time for the last one!

Let's touch base soon on the project. I am curious how things have been going and what you need from me! I am starting to see a glimmer of light at the end of the tunnel in terms of getting caught up from the rocky start to the semester!
